

What Others Have to Say About Dr. Jeff Rhodes

“Dr. Rhodes has a naturally intuitive mind when it comes to seeing the big picture. He always keeps customer service first and foremost in his thoughts, knowing that success breeds success.”

J.C. Colton, Associate Dean for Instructional Service, Weatherford College

“I would label Jeff as a program builder. He covers everything from planning, to implementation, to program assessment, and he does it all with the world’s brightest smile.”

Shirley W. Jacob, Ph.D., Department Head, Teaching and Learning, Southeastern Louisiana University

“Very enjoyable class with exceptional interaction from the Professor. His detailed responses and questions caused me to re-examine my own thoughts and apply new theories to our discussion.”

-verbatim student comment from course evaluation for EDHE 5301-VC01, Wayland Baptist University, Fall 2009

“I always learn a lot from Dr. Rhodes. He teaches the students to look at things from multiple angles and to think outside the box.”

-verbatim student comment from course evaluation for EDHE 5303-VC01, Wayland Baptist University, Winter 2009-10

“We met Jeff through the process of enrolling our daughter as a freshman at SLU. He was super helpful using a personal touch to help us with the normal parental anxieties. Furthermore, on numerous occasions he offered the same great service to others that we referred to him. Then, to our surprise, Jeff informed us of a scholarship that our daughter qualified for that we did not know existed. What a tremendous help he was to us!”

-Randy & Lori Ray Hammond, LA

“Jeff was such a great help to me as a student at OC. He always made sure I was on track and provided any assistance I needed during my time at OC. His door was always open to students.”

-Cherith Jones, former Odessa College student, 2010 graduate of the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor.

“I can't think of a more positive experience than the one we experienced with Dr. Jeff Rhodes. His attention to our needs was extremely insightful and personal as he introduced and explained the possibilities set out before us. We were most impressed!”

- James Helman, Mentor to future student at SLU